Report of Director and School Improvement Council

Daniel Morgan Technology Center serves Spartanburg School Districts 3 and 7. Students from Broome and Spartanburg High Schools may elect to enroll in one course or a combination of two-year, one-year, or semester courses available in 16 Career and Technology Education Programs. All programs are offered in accordance with the standards established by the Office of Career and Technology Education, SC Department of Education. New courses added to the curriculum for 2007-2008 were Advanced Mobile Electronics, Sports Marketing, and Renewable Energy.

Throughout the 2007-2008 school year, students demonstrated high levels of technical skills and successes. DMTC students participated in a total of 192 Extended Learning Activities, including Cooperative Education, Internships, Shadowing, Service Learning, and School-Based Enterprises. By meeting industry standards, 327 students earned a total of 391 certifications. With Spartanburg Community College, 13 students earned 26 Dual Credits in Anatomy and Medical Terminology and 9 Welding students earned Technical Advanced Placement. In the Accelerated Learning Program, 56 students earned sufficient credits to return to their class level status including 11 seniors who graduated in May. During the annual Awards Day Program, 252 students received certificates for completing a CATE course and 199 students were recognized for meeting requirements for membership in the National Technical Honor Society. By earning 4 units in a DMTC Program, 121 students met the requirements to be a CATE completer.

Other highlights of 2007-2008 include the completion of the 4th house by Building Construction and Electricity students for the Spartanburg Housing Authority. The Renewable Energy course was implemented with a $25,000 Grant awarded by Advance SC. Teams of students from Culinary Arts and Protective Services placed second in their respective state competitions. A team of Automotive Technology students qualified as one of the top ten in the state and competed in the regional Ford/AAA Troubleshooting competition. Students in Welding, Health Sciences and Business Technology participated in skill competitions on the local, state, and national levels. A Health Science student was selected as the "Technology Champion" for the Spartanburg, Cherokee and Union County area. During the summer of 2008, DMTC conducted the 5th Robotic Camp for rising 8th grade students which was sponsored by the Upstate Workforce Investment Board and local industries.

Daniel Morgan Technology Center was selected as one of 14 in the state to participate in the "Technology Centers That Work" Program through the Southern Regional Education Board. For the 6th consecutive year, DMTC was named as a Palmetto Gold School by the SC State Department of Education.
